The Elect and the World

I hope this lady's husband gets better, or that he finds a healthier way to manage his injury You make good points, obviously we don't know both sides of the story and I wasn't trying to pick sides--it always just seems more useful to help someone see how they are actually in control of a situation and their reactions to it rather than speculate about how much of a victim they really are--and that goes for her in the context of this forum and also how she deals with hubby at home. Throughout the story, there is one little shovel that gets used for all different things generation after generation.
