Hailing from New York City, Spin Doctors hit international pay dirt with this insanely catchy single back in the heady days of Sometimes it can become a little too easy to take some of the finer things in life for granted... The Goncourts described the nocturnal activities of this "cast-off Bohemian" in salacious detail, writing admirably of "this anemic-looking figure, whose nights are a ceaseless round of coition and copulation," constantly amazed that one in whom "the flame of love" burned so ardently could maintain such an enormous literary production.
