THE TAMING OF PAULA

She is vast, she is distant like that darkness in which she has trouble breathing, and she is so truly the vastness of the universe in her cries, her silences are so truly the emptiness of death, that I embrace her inasmuch as anguish and fever throw me into a place of death, which is the absence of bounds to the universe. When you are travelling, you are finding out who you are and trying on different personalities and attitudes to life.
