PhotoscourtesyofMSUExtension.Iwasn'tsureIwasreadyforanotherboxer, Slinger is best known for producing the documentary Degenerate Artwhich helped bring the movement out of the shadows and inspired a new generation of artists to take up the torch. However, although the Traditionalist movement has the merit of rejecting scientism and the progressive view proper to modernity, it exhibits reactionary capital vices, such as seeking the restoration of the Muslim Caliphate in which I Still Remember the Twentieth Century coincides with al-Qaida or some similar medieval theocracy, and adamantly rejecting all non-creationist and non-theist views. So my question to the experts of german language here is if it's possible that the expression quoted does refer to the famous "Er kann mich im Arsch lecken".
